PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Association with the students of Harrow High during 1968 has been pleasant and I have been sincerely impressed by the desire of our student body as a whole to do excellent work. This characteristic is evident in the 1968 Yearbook. It is a fine publication and another example of what interested and talented young people can do when working towards a worthwhile goal. Most of us learn more from sharing tasks with others than we care to admit. We must earn our personal freedoms by our actions and attitudes and protect them by a sincere desire to work with others for the benefit of the entire community.

Our graduates have carried the name of Harrow District High School far and wide across the province and have already earned for themselves an enviable reputation which can not help but reflect upon those of us still attending school. I hope many of you will follow in their footsteps.

A.C. Pype

VICE-PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

By the time the 1968-69 edition of the Yearbook reaches you the school year will be drawing to a close. Let us evaluate the year very carefully. We must watch a tendency to measure in terms of bigger schools and expanded programmes. This year has been a success for you only if you have developed both mentally and morally. To instill a love of learning and a real sense of personal responsibility in all students must be the goal of our school. Our success can only be measured in these terms.

You must bear in mind that the requirements for success in school have changed very little. Hard work on the part of each student is still a necessity even though new and more interesting courses are now available. Only by diligent effort will you realize your full potential and thus receive the rewards which come from a job well done.

May I take this opportunity of wishing the graduates all success in whatever they choose to do, and that those who remain with us may continue to make every day count towards this end.

GENERAL STAFF

ABSENT: Mrs. Bruner, Richard Bruner.

The General staff does a very fine job of keeping the school in top running order. Mr. and Mrs. Bruner keeps the rooms and halls clean; Mrs. Heinrichs and Mrs. Shepley keep the students fed; and Mrs. MacKenzie and Miss Woodiwiss are busy in the office. The yearbook would like to take this opportunity to thank them all for a job well done.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

December 31, 1968 will be the end of an era. The School Board of Harrow District High School will be dissolved as will all other existing school boards in the county. They will be replaced by an Essex County Divisional Board of Education and a Combined Separate School Board.

This type of board will bring to an end the familiarity between board and staff. No longer will each teacher (or for that matter each student) be an individual who knows the Board on a first name basis; rather each will be just "one of the teachers" at H.D.H.S. Of course there are pros and cons for this type of setup and there is or may be opposition to this new board. Whether a County Board will function better than individual school boards is a question only the future can answer.

To the new County Board we wish the best of luck. To our members for this area we extend our congratulations. To our old School Board we extend our thanks for their interest in our school.

WEDDING BELLS

In 12AB this year young love blossomed in the shadow-darkened corridors of H.D.H.S.

Like a trapped rat our beloved Fred Canon of 12A, the apple of every girl's eye, fell hard for Gertrude (last name unknown) of 12B.

He proposed to her on the fateful night, Oct. 31 after being seduced into watching a full moon.

Fred is of Polish-African parents while Gertrude is of British-Chinese origin (opposites attract, according to the Universal Law of Gravitation). Because of Fred's $5.00 an hour job at Chrysler's he felt he could handle a marriage situation and besides that...

The groovy wedding took place at the high school in room 6A. In spite of herself Gertrude was a beautiful busty bride. Her gown was made from cheesecloth curtains from Piggy's room (last year's curtains). Ann Belika was the seamstress and the dress was a work of art! The bridesmaid dress was one of Ann's originals too! The gown was daringly low cut with her Adam's apple protruding over the top of the frilly collar.

The wedding march started with Barb Barclay at the piano playing her Hitchcock theme, and the bride and groom, followed by Ann Jobagy as maid of honour and Dennis Wenzler as the best man bounced gaily up the aisle to the solemn acting Justice of the Peace, Joe Balog. Joe held a final mass for Fred and then got right on with the wedding. When he asked if anyone had an objection to the marriage, Lee Borland jumped up and said, "Fred can't get married... 'cause he doesn't exist". This started an argument among the guests and it was finally settled when 45 Hell's Angels and 69 Black Panthers, on their choppers, roared into the room, picked up Gertrude and rode off in a huge cloud of smoke and fire. Gertrude was never seen again and Fred was forced to marry his mother's friend from Puce, Egerelda.

Wedding vows were solemnized at 3:30 and all the guests were forced to go to the reception for interrogation. The reception was held at the local high school gymnasium about 25 feet from the wedding place and invitations open only to 12AB and their dear friend Mr. Marshall Foster, Head of Mathematics in Ontario.

As the ceremonies commenced the guests began arriving. The whole thing was rather formal and proper until good ole Ubie (Jim Martin) and Bones (John Beaudoin) drove in (and I don't mean that just literally) with a Molson's truck, chuck full. From then on the gym seemed to explode with action. Bud Strohm began swinging from the fake chandelier to the melodramatic music of "When the Cows Come Home", Fred's favorite song sung by the gyrating Rick Riediger. The two go-go dancers Catherine Ciphery and Betty-Ann Duransky, in their silver micro-skirts were really shakin' everybody up.

Everyone was having a complete riot. People running about naked, screaming and singing - having a bit of good clean fun. Beth Fields and Janet Baltzer were in a corner going right hyper 'cause they were so happy for Fred. All kinds of mean and nasty things were written on the walls and floor for Linda Bansky to analyze like "J.C. is a schizo with paranoidic tendencies". Chuck French, finally convinced that he had an Oedipus Complex tried to drown himself in a glass of champagne. Amidst the ruckus a huge cake was wheeled in and out popped Sue Williams yelling, "Yeah, Fred!" Then proceeded a mild riot with everybody throwing cake and rolling about.

There is little mention about Fred and Egerelda's part in the reception. That's because they didn't do anything cool. They spent most of the time "making out" in the equipment room.

Well as the cliché goes "Good things don't last long" and just as everybody was "gettin' into the groove" the cops raided the place. The entire reception was thrown (Heh! police brutality!) into paddy wagons and the empty beer truck which they borrowed from Ubie, and hauled down to 401. With spirits sagging 12AB spent a warm comfortable night at the jail. Despite all the discriminating junk said about cops they were at least considerate enough to give Fred and Egerelda a cell of their own. Imagine a free bridal suite!

On a more serious tone we extend our best wishes for REACH '68.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

The 67 - 68 season was another great year for the Boys' Basketball Teams, who both won the Essex County and S.W.O.S.S.A. championships. This was due, most likely, because of the aggressiveness and sharp shooting. The Seniors get special mention on this account for having an unbeaten regular season, a great accomplishment. They had the individual ability that did work as a team.

The juniors ran on something different, to make up for the things they lacked. They had determination with a little gull force on the side. Although they lost regular season games won both S.W.O.S.S.A. play-off games where the seniors did not.

Top scorer for the seniors were Wayne Homes and Greg Johnson with a game average of 17 points. For the Juniors it was Agenar Ferreira with a game average of 19 points.

The '68 - '69 season has been somewhat of a disappointment. The seniors are without the service of Wayne Holmes, one of last year's stars, who has been disabled by injury but has been replaced by Chuck French, who is doing a tremendous job.

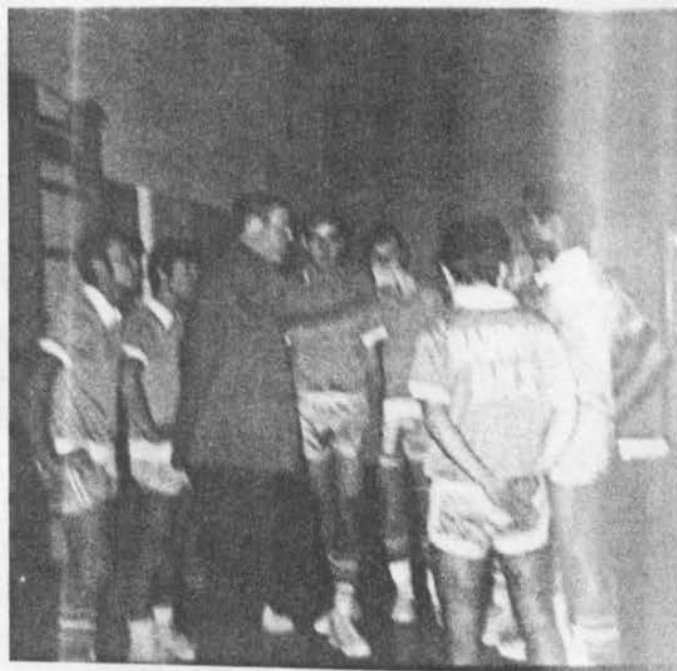

Cary Lamour, Terry Lee, Steve Grayer, Randy Reese, Chuck French, Mr. Trombley, Joe Toth, Milo Johnson, Joe Belog, Alex Toth, Agenor Ferreira, Wilson Ferreira.

The juniors got off to a bad start this year, which has crippled them ever since. Cliff Stephens has had a good season so far, at time scoring more than twenty points and continues to be always dependable. David Lavender will probably leave the most undesirable record in the league with the most fouls.

As it stands now (February 12th) the standings are 4 wins and 4 loses for both teams. They will have to make a long haul if they are to regain last-year's position with just a few games left in the regular schedule. So far in the scoring Randy Reese leads the seniors with a game average of 18 points.

And in the juniors Cliff Stephens is tops with a game average of 17.
